OBITUARY.

Digh, at "Welbourn Hall." Loudoun County, Virginia, on the 30th of August, in the 30th year of her age, REBECCA ANN DULANY, wife of Richard H. Dulany, and only daughter of the late Colonel Rozier Dulany, U. S. A. "There are deeds which should not pass away, And names that should not wither."

The subject of this notice was gifted with more than ordinary intellect, and her mind was cultivated with unceasing care and assiduity.-She moved in her family circle not only devo teely loved, but admired and respected by all Loved for her amenity of manner, loved for the christian charity of her character, and loved for al social excellencies; admired for every external grace, and every female virtue. Nor will the Her tears of anguish, grief, and loss, be confined to those alone to whom she was by consanguinity united. Hers was a wide field of charity and love. The poor received her mumicence, the orphan found in her a mother, and in her the afflicted ever met one to provide for their temporal comfort, and to direct them in lones of eloquence and love to Him who alone givetb spiritual consolation. Her family mouth, and are not to be comforted, but i medd be a consolation, (sweet to dwell upon.) that her soul is at peace in the bosom of her Father and her God.

Those lips are pale that once gave birth, To words of sweetest, tenderest love; None brighter glow'd upon the earth, None brighter gleam in Heaven above. The form is cold-no more we'll press

Our lips upon that placid brow! What living streams of tenderness With her warm life have ceased to flow ! She's now enthroned in realms on high, Where angels hymn one choral strain,

Amid the throng she glideth by,

The loveliest of the cherub train. One who loved her long and well pays the tribute of his tears-more he cannot pay; but affection, virtue and love will crowd with their richest remembrances; and it is just they should, for eminently she deserves them all-the heart tells us so, which is at once the emanation of tears of gratitude for favors past, and the fountain of tears of love. The Baltimore Sun of Saturday last reported the death of SAMUEL D HARPER, a well known and highly respected citizen of Wheeling. Va. VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE RAIL ROAD --The stockholders of this road were in session at Lynchburg on Welnesday and Thursday. Edwin Robinson, proxy for the city of Rich- rived at Georgetown, 86 of them from Cummond, presented a resolution asking the abrogation of the through ticket arrangement with the Central and the Orange and Alexadria Roads, and its establishment with the Road-on the ground that the State, in the charter of the latter road, bad granted it an exclusive right to transfer passengers between Richmond and Washington city. The resolution was advocated by Mr. Robinson and opposed by Mr. McDaniel, after which the resolution was withdrawn by Mr. Robinson.

Mr. E. C. Banks offered a resolution to the effect that the "Special Contract" embodied in the receipt which the company gives for the transportation of freight be stricken out. On motion the resolution was referred to the President and Directors.

Mesers. Burwell, of Bedford, and Wm. Ballard Preston, addressed the stockholders on the importance of the Tehuantepec route to California. All the old officers of the road were re-elected.

RICHMOND, SEPT. 17 —A duel took place this morning at the Fairfield Race-course between O. Jennings Wise, of the Enquirer, and Hon. Sherrard Clemens, of Wheeling. Four shots were exchanged, when Mr. Clem ens fell, baving received a ball in the thigh. The wound, bowever, is not considered a dangerous one. The cause of the duel was an article in the Euquirer charging Mr. Clemens as being guilty of "an act of gross treachery towards Judge Brockenbrough, perpetrated under the guise of personal and political friendship," and "abusing the columps of the Enquirer by requesting and obtaining the insertion of these same wilful misrepresentations." Mr. Clemens is the law, but still the wisdom and policy which present Representative in Congress from the dictate four cents per ton limitation upon the Wheeling district.

Previous to the meeting which took place between Mr. Sherrard Clemens and Mr. Wise. jr., Mr. C. prepared a statement (which is published in the Richmond South,) of the circumstances connected with his interview with Judge Brockenbrough, in which he declares that from all that was said, and all that occurred on that occasion, he thought he was fully justified in writing the letter that he did, and that he had no idea of misrepre senting Judge B., or of entering into any intrigue to his injury, or doing anything else

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE CANAL .- Business upon the Chesapeake & Onio Canal during the week ending on Saturday, was quite brick, 109 boats arbarland, bringing about 8,600 tons of coal, and the remainder from different points with Hour, grain, wood, &r. The receipts of tolls same week amounted to $3,915 84.

FREIGHT CHARGES ON CENTRAL RAILROAD. -The following article from the Charlottesville Advocate, is in reference to a subject, concerning which our merchants have complained much, and which we have more than once commented on ourselves. We may have something more to say hereafter:

"Will the Central railroad authorities inform us why it is that they charge $2.15 per ton for the transportation of guano from Gordonsville to Charlottesville, a distance of only 21 miles. The maximum rates of charge. under their charter, allow them only $1.86 for a ton of 2,000 lbs., whereas they are really charging the farmer the illegal rate of $2.15 per ten. Why is this? Nearly all of our guano is purchased in Alexandria .-Does the Central Railroad intend, by its ille gal and exorbitant charges, to discriminate against Alexandria, and in favor of Richmond? The distance from Alexandria to Gordonscompany transports guano at $2.85 per ton, just seventy cents per ton more than the Central road charges for only twenty-one miles! From Richmond to Charlottesville, a distance of 97 miles, the Central railroad's charge upon guano is $3.90 per ton. At that rate, the charge from Gordonsville to this place ought to be 84; cents per ton, insead of which it is $2 15. Even allowing a higher rate for the shorter distance than for the entire route from Richmond, a ressonable charge would still fall far short of $2.15 per ton. Is not this conclusive evidence that there is an unagainst Alexandria, and one too that works serious injury to our farmers who buy guano in that market. We have shown that the Central railroad charges more upon guano than the maximum rate allowed by law. In fact it is nearly three times as much as the spirit of our general railroad law allows. Upon the articles of gypsum and lime the code very properly limits the charges of transportation to 4 cents per ton, per mile. When that law was passed, guano was not an article of commerce .-If it had been it would certainly have been classed under the exception with the other generally used fertilizers, gypsum and lime. To be sure the Central railroad is not limited by the provisions of the general railroad great fertilizers, ought to have had some weight with the Directory of the road. It seems however, they did not, and instead of four cents per ton per mile, we are forced by the grand monopoly to pay about eleven cents per ton per mile. Why is all this? Is it not the result of a mistake somewhere, rather than the matured action of the Directory ?-As it is a question in which Alexandria and this community are deeply interested, we hope that Col. Fontaine will investigate the question and remove the cause of complaint."

MRETING AT THE CORN EXCHANGE.-We morning next, at 10 o'clock. A full atteninterest to all concerned transacted.
